

Meetings offer an opportunity for members to share their current projects and to view presentations from fiber experts or participate in “hands on” demonstrations of fiber techniques. In-depth workshops are offered periodically.

Membership...the Guild is open to persons interested in, or actively engaged in the art of hand weaving and/or related fiber crafts. Dues are $25 per year and entitle you to meetings, a bi-monthly newsletter, guild sponsored workshops and events, and access to the guild library of books and videos.

Four Corners Weavers Guild

We invite you to join us as we explore the fiber arts. To learn more about our Guild, please visit our website at:

Our Mission...Our Guild was formed in 1979. The objective of the Guild is to explore the lore and techniques of hand weaving and related textile crafts and to stimulate interest in these. This is accomplished by meeting and exchanging ideas, by conducting workshops and demonstrations for instruction, by holding and promoting exhibitions and sales, and by providing educational activities as a service to the public.

The guild serves a widespread geographic area with members drawn from Durango, Cortez, Farmington and many smaller regions encompassing NE Arizona, SE Utah, NW New Mexico and SW Colorado.

Our Members...Guild members are involved in one or more of the following fiber arts:

- ◆ Weaving with large, small or no loom at all.
- ◆ Spinning and fiber preparation
- ◆ Knitting & crocheting
- ◆ Dyeing
- ◆ Felting
- ◆ Basket making
- ◆ Raising a wide variety of fiber animals.

Our Meetings...The Guild holds meetings on the third Saturday of the months of January, March, May, July, September and November. Meetings are held at various locations in the Four Corners area. Doors open at 9:30am for socializing and the meeting starts at 10:00am. Prospective members are welcome to attend as a guest prior to joining .
